Do Solar shingles need to be rinsed?

Seasonal rains should help keep the solar shingles clean of dirt and debris, but if not, homeowners can gently rinse their shingles (only when they're cool). Timberline Solar TM provides excellent, durable protection from leaks, the elements, and weather-related issues while generating reliable, clean energy for the home.

Do Timberline solar shingles need a nail gun?

Unlike traditional rack-mounted panels, which require drilling that can increase wind uplift and potentially void warranties, Timberline Solar TM shingles are installed with a nail gun, minimizing roof penetrations and disruption to waterproofing.

Do Timberline solar shingles need a lot of maintenance?

The Timberline Solar TM roofing system is designed to require little to no maintenance. Seasonal rains should help keep the solar shingles clean of dirt and debris, but if not, homeowners can gently rinse their shingles (only when they're cool).
